

SAINT PAUL, MINNESOTA REPUBLICAN CITY COMMITTEE CONSTITUTION

Preamble

We, the Republicans of Saint Paul, Minnesota (St Paul-RPM), designed this Constitution to institute regular procedures for the orderly and efficient conduct of our activities. We welcome the participation of all residents of this city who subscribe to the principles of the Republican Party.

The Mission of the Saint Paul Republican City Committee is to:

- A. Represent the Republican philosophy of government and the party's platform to the people of Saint Paul.
- B. Build, train and maintain the party organization at the city and ward level.
- C. Identify, train and elect candidates for city offices who are capable men and women dedicated to the Republican philosophy.
- D. Support and assist elected Republican officials in following the Party philosophy.
- E. Raise funds necessary to operate this organization and fulfill its mission.
- F. Communicate the view of the Saint Paul Republicans to other party organizations.
- G. Support changes in government that advances the party philosophy and platform.

ARTICLE I Organization Defined

Section 1 Name

The name of this organization is the Saint Paul Republican City Committee here after called "SPRCC".

Section 2 Objective

The objective of this organization is to fulfill the mission set out in the Preamble.

Section 3 Membership Qualifications

Membership in this organization is open to all citizens currently residing in the City of Saint Paul who support the objectives of the party and are qualified by Minnesota law to vote. Membership shall not be conditional upon payment of dues.

Section 3 SPRCC Bylaws

Here after references to SPRCC Bylaws will refer to the SPRCC Bylaws except in such times as SPRCC Bylaws have not been written. When SPRCC Bylaws are not available the SPRCC will default to the Fourth Congressional District's Bylaws.

ARTICLE II Caucuses

Section 1 Caucuses

A caucuses refers to SPRCC meetings where the members (as defined in the SPRCC Constitution Article I Section 3) meet but are not voting on one or all of the following: Constitutional Changes, Election of Officers, Endorsing of Candidates, and/or Voting to Approve Financial Expenditures. Caucuses may be held in person, remotely, or using a highbred model.

Section 2 Regular Caucuses

The City Chair may call a Caucus at their discretion not to exceed four caucuses a year.

Section 3 Special Caucuses

The Executive Committee may call a Special Caucus as defined in the SPRCC Bylaws.

ARTICLE III Ward Organization

Section 1 Composition

A Ward organization may be established in each ward within the City of Saint Paul as defined in the SPRCC Bylaws. The Vice Chair serving on the Executive committee elected from that Ward will serve as its liaison as defined in the SPRCC Bylaws.

ARTICLE IV Ward Conventions

Section 1 Call

Ward conventions shall be held at the direction of the Executive Committee. The call shall be issued at least ten (10) days prior to the convention and shall include all delegates and alternates elected at the most recent precinct caucuses who reside in that ward and the SPRCC Executive Committee. The notice may be delivered by electronic mail.

Section 2 Arrangements

The SPRCC Vice Chair residing in the ward shall make the arrangements for the convention and shall provide for the temporary organization of the convention and appoint the convention committees. Conventions may be held in person, remotely, or using a highbred model.

Section 3 Composition

The eligible voters at the ward conventions shall be the delegates and alternates elected at the most recent precinct caucuses who reside in that ward

Section 4 Business

A ward convention may endorse a city council candidate for its ward, pass resolutions, and conduct other business properly brought forward.

Section 5 Rules

Each ward convention shall be governed by rules herein, rules adopted by the Full City Committee or the Executive Committee, and rules adopted by the city convention. Each convention may adopt its own rules that are consistent with the SPRCC constitution and SPRCC Bylaws.

Section 6 Endorsement

A. Procedure

The voting strength of the convention shall be the permanent roll of the convention as defined by the state Republican constitution. Any candidate for public office may be granted endorsement at any time if he or she receives sixty percent (60%) of the voting strength of the convention as established by the most recent report of the credentials committee preceding such vote. Such reports may be called up at any time by majority vote. If more than one candidate seeks endorsement, none of them shall be voted on separately. All votes for endorsement shall be by secret ballot except in case of an uncontested race. Uncontested races may be held by acclamation vote upon a motion approved by the convention.

B. Effect An “endorsement” for public office at a convention, which is not representative of the entire electorate for the office, shall be no more than expression of the sentiment of the convention. An endorsement may carry with it the commitment of party resources, finances and volunteers only when made at the convention, which is representative of the entire electorate of the office.

A constitution & SPRCC Bylaws committee composed of the Chair and other members appointed by the Chair and approved by the Executive Committee shall continually review the constitution and SPRCC Bylaws and report recommended changes to the city convention and the city committee. It shall meet immediately prior to each regular convention and hear proposals made by any delegate, alternate or regular party worker.

Section 5 Ad hoc Committees

The SPRCC Chair may create ad hoc committees. The mandate and responsibility of such committees shall be clearly set out by the Chair and reported to the Executive Committee as soon as practicable.

ARTICLE X Elections

Section 1 Officers

The SPRCC shall elect city officers, including a Chair, Deputy Chair, Secretary and Vice Chairs. The treasurer shall be appointed by the Chair and confirmed by the Full Committee.

- A. The City Committee Chair may not also serve as a SPRCC Vice Chair, a CD Chair or a CD Deputy Chair;
- B. Any officer of the SPRCC must relinquish their position while being an active candidate for a political position or seeking endorsement for the same;

Section 2 City Officers

Candidates for city officers shall be elected at the first SPRCC City Convention held within 30 days following the Fourth Congressional District Convention. All votes cast for SPRCC offices shall be by all delegates and seated alternates elected at the most recent precinct caucuses and currently residing in Saint Paul. Nominations may be made from the floor or by the nominations committee. In the case of the Vice Chairs; nominations shall be limited to being made by those residing in the Ward for which the Vice Chair is being elected. Each officer position shall be voted on separately and to be elected an officer, a candidate must receive a majority of the votes cast for the office by delegates and seated alternates elected at the most recent precinct caucuses and currently residing in the Saint Paul. If more than one ballot is required, the candidate receiving the smallest number of votes shall be eliminated prior to the second ballot. If there is tie vote, one more ballot shall be taken, if the tie cannot be broken after the second ballot the decision will be made by drawing lots.

Section 3 Other Positions

Candidates for all other positions shall be elected by a majority of those voting. Nominations shall be made from the floor and each position shall be voted on separately. If more than one ballot is required, the candidate receiving the fewest votes shall be eliminated after each ballot, and thereafter votes for that candidate shall not be counted. If the electing entity is not specified, the Executive Committee shall fill the position.

Section 4 Secret Ballot

There shall be a secret ballot for the election of all officers and if there is more than one person seeking the position or endorsement. A secret ballot for all other elections and votes shall be at the discretion of the Chair.

Section 5 Miscellaneous

The result of any vote by paper ballot shall be binding if the ballots have been collected, even if the convention adjourns before the vote is tallied. When more than one candidate seeks a position, none of them shall be voted on separately. All ties shall be broken by drawing lots.

ARTICLE XI General Rules

Section 1 Rules Enumerated

All meetings, conventions, procedures and operations of this organization shall be governed in order of precedence by the following rules:

- A. Constitution and Laws of the United States and the State of Minnesota;
- B. Republicans Party of Minnesota Constitution;
- C. Republicans Party of Minnesota SPRCC Bylaws;
- D. Directives of the Republican Party of Minnesota State Central Committee;
- E. Directives of the Republican Party of Minnesota State Executive Committee;
- F. Fourth Congressional District Constitution
(as per Fourth Congressional District Constitution, Article IV, § 6);
- G. Fourth Congressional District Bylaws;
- H. Saint Paul Republican City Committee Constitution;
- I. SPRCC Bylaws adopted pursuant to this constitution;
- J. Standing rules adopted at a convention or any meeting of a committee;
- K. Roberts Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the SPRCC in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the SPRCC's Constitution or SPRCC Bylaws, or those of the Fourth Congressional District and MN GOP,

Section 2 Conflicts

If irreconcilable provisions appear in any rules, the rule from the source higher in precedence shall prevail. If rules from the same source conflict, the more specific provisions shall prevail. If rules of like specificity from the same source conflict, the rules adopted more recently shall prevail.

Section 3 Removals

An officer of the SPRCC may be suspended from their duties for up to 100 days by a sixty percent (60%) majority vote of the Executive Committee. The officer then may be removed by a sixty percent (60%) majority vote of the full committee conducted at a meeting during that suspension period. If a sixty percent (60%) majority of the full committee does not vote to remove them within that 100 days they will be considered acquitted and cannot be impeached again until a following term.

Section 4 Vacancies

A vacancy occurs when a person holding a party position dies, is permanently incapacitated, is removed, resigns, or ceases to live within the area from which his or her electorate was drawn (except which failure of residence results from a redrawing of ward lines by public body). A vacancy also exists when an elected body fails to fill a position. The vacancy shall be filled within ninety (90) days.

Section 5 Quorum

A quorum of sixty percent (60%) is required to commence business at executive meetings. A quorum of ten percent (10%), or 10 members, whichever is less, is required to commence business at City Committee meetings. A quorum fifteen percent (15%) shall be required to commence business at any City Convention or ward convention. There shall be no quorum for any caucus. Quorums for all other meetings shall be a majority or three (3) members, whichever is less. Except at endorsing conventions, there shall be no quorum after business has been duly commenced. At endorsing conventions the continuing quorum shall be one half of the voting strength of the convention.

Section 6 Ward Identity

When the boundaries of the wards are substantially changed, the ward representatives shall continue to serve out their terms. The city committee may alter the terms and responsibilities of the ward officers through the adoption of a reapportionment plan.

ARTICLE XII Amendments

Section 1 Constitution

This Constitution may be amended by a vote of sixty percent (60%) of those present and able to vote at any regular convention, provided that the proposed amendment has been presented to the standing constitution and SPRCC Bylaws committee before it is voted on. Notice of a proposal to amend the constitution shall be submitted with the Convention Call.

Section 2 SPRCC Bylaws

The SPRCC is authorized and empowered to adopt SPRCC Bylaws not inconsistent with this Constitution, the Fourth Congressional District's Constitution and Bylaws and the RPM Constitution and Bylaws. The SPRCC Bylaws may be amended by two-thirds vote at any SPRCC Full Committee meeting after written notice of any proposal for amendment has been submitted with the notice of the meeting. Any proposal for amendment shall be referred to the SPRCC Constitution and SPRCC Bylaws Committee and reported out of said committee by at least a minority report signed by three such committee members before it shall be submitted to the meeting.
